

I truly value my privacy when I am at home. I do not want to have my privacy interrupted by people trying to sell me things. When I want a product I will initiate the calls. When our business is done I do not want to be contacted unless I have expressly given you permission to do so. Please keep the telephone privacy act intact. Thank you in advance..